CAUTION

Dionisio Gonzalez is wanted for his alleged involvement in the shooting of two young girls near Avondale Park in Chicago, Illinois.

On June 8, 2011, the girls, ages two and seven, were playing in a neighborhood park around 8 p.m. when they were shot by errant .45 caliber rounds during an ongoing Chicago street gang dispute. The two-year-old suffered a graze wound to the back of her head, while the seven-year-old was shot in the back. The Chicago Police Department subsequently identified the shooter, who was arrested. The alleged driver of the getaway vehicle was identified as Dionisio Gonzalez.

On June 14, 2011, the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, obtained a warrant for Gonzalez's arrest for aggravated battery with a handgun. On June 24, 2011, a federal arrest warrant was issued by the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, Chicago, Illinois, after Gonzalez was charged federally with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the location and arrest of Dionisio Gonzalez.
